No 1 CIV 3664

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Upon reading and filing the annexed affidavit of Plaintiff Meghan Larywon In Support Of Application For Order To Show Cause With Temporary Restraints, with exhibits thereto, the Declaration of Karen L. Webb, Ph.D. In Support Of Application For Order To Show Cause With Temporary Restraints dated May 30, 2011, with exhibits thereto, and the Declaration Of Lisa K. Eastwood In Support Of Application For Order To Show Cause With Temporary Restraints dated May 27, 2011, with exhibits thereto, including the complaint verified on the 27th day of May, 2011, and upon all the papers heretofore had and filed herein, it is hereby

VBS ✓

ORDERED that defendant Law School Admissions Council, Inc. show cause before this Court on June 2, 2011 at ~~9:30 a.m.~~ 2:30 PM at Courtroom 620 of the Courthouse located at 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, NY 10601 why an Order should not be entered, pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 42 U.S.C. § 12189:

- (1) preliminarily enjoining defendant, its agents, servants employees, and all other persons working in concert with them from denying plaintiff the specific accommodations recommended by Plaintiff's doctors and which plaintiff has twice requested, specifically, double the standard time allotted to non-disabled takers of the Law School Aptitude Test and a fifteen (15) minute break between each section of said test on the ground that plaintiff is a disabled person within the meaning of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended for whom said accommodations are reasonably calculated to allow her to accurately demonstrate her individual aptitude and achievement level; and

(2) granting plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper; and it is further

~~ORDERED that sufficient cause having been shown, pending the hearing of plaintiff's application for a preliminary injunction, the defendant, its agents, servants, employees and all persons acting in concert with them are required to provide plaintiff with double the standard time allotted to complete the June 6, 2011 Law School Aptitude Test and to provide plaintiff with a fifteen (15) minute break between each section of said test; and it is further~~

~~ORDERED that plaintiff's LSAT test shall not be scored pending the outcome of these proceedings, and in the event the preliminary injunction sought by plaintiff is denied after a hearing on the merits of plaintiff's application for the same, defendant, its agents, servants, employees and all persons acting in concert with them, shall discard the results of plaintiff's performance on the June 6, 2011 Law School Aptitude Test, not report or record the same on defendant's books and records, and treat said test as if it was never taken by plaintiff; and it is further~~

ORDERED that a copy of this Order to Show Cause with Temporary Restraints together with the papers upon which it is based, including the verified complaint, shall be served upon defendant on or before June 1, 2011 by pre-paid Federal Express, next business morning delivery, at defendant's place of business located at 662 Penn Street, Newtown, Pa. 18940-0040 and that such service shall be deemed good and sufficient service.
